Local Shops

Rivalling Amazon and Getir...

An impossible task? Well, we heard the same before we wiped Just Eat off the map in so many towns and cities across the UK too. Our strategy is simple, where are they lacking?

Amazon

What they Did

Amazon have quickly become the world-leader in online ordering and have done so most centrally through their Prime service that covers almost the entire planet, so coverage certainly isn't an issue for them!

Amazon also provides users with "literally everything from A-Z" delivered to their doors the next day with Prime, so variety of choice certainly isn't an issue either, but that delivery could be quicker...

Finally, due to their huge commission levelled at hundreds of thousands of retailers, they are completely unable to offer any advertising or individual retailers and products.

Getting our share

What Amazon don't provide however is a same day service. The quickest they can get anything to you is the following day, they also lack any real presence in the grocery market following the lack of success of Amazon Pantry.

With each of your shops being local and on demand you can have orders from florists, convenience stores and a huge variety of retailers at your customers doors within the hour.

Whatsmore, as you are working with a more selective number of retailers that you will have personal relationships with, you are able to offer them that direct marketing that so many of the larger conglomerates cannot, boosting their sales and their presence in their local area.

Some kind of graphic showing a tick against instant delivery, direct marketing, UK-wide coverage and huge range of products.

Getir

What they Did

Founded in 2015 in Turkey, Getir fully launched into the UK in early 2021 promising on-demand grocery deliveries from their dark-warehouses across the country.

Getir had an excellent start in providing a rapid service but has failed to expand past convenience items, failed to add any outlets other than their own and failed to expand anywhere outside of the major UK cities.

Getir is very unlikely to be available in your area, if only someone could provide the same instant service with a wider range of shops that are professionally marketed to local people...

Getting our share

...and that is where you come in!

Not only can you match Getir's rapid delivery but you can do so with items available for a much wider range of shops in your local area!

With each of your shops being local and on demand you can have orders from florists, convenience stores and a huge variety of retailers at your customers doors within the hour.

And again as you are working with a more selective number of retailers that you will have personal relationships with, you are able to offer them that professional direct marketing of their products to boost both of your sales.
